E. Lincoln Russell
Constable of Chelmsford.

Chelmsford Oct. 29. 98.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

Pursuant to warrant, a legal meeting of the, inhabitants of Precinct One in the Town of Chelmsford, qualified to vote for Civil Officers was held on Tuesday the 8th day of November, 1898, at (6-30 o'clock) Six Thirty o'clock A.M. in the Lower Town Hall, in said Precinct, being the polling place designated by the Selectmen.

Warden, Clerk, Tellers & Inspectors, sworn by Town Clerk George C. Parkhurst. Before proceeding to ballot, the ballot box was opened and found to be empty and the register stood a zero (0)

It was then securely locked and balloting commenced.

At commencement the ballot box did not work, but the trouble was found to be that ballots were not pushed far enough in to the machine.

As Albert P. Perham appointed Inspector was reported sick in bed, Deputy Inspector John P. Lohoria acted as Inspector and before the Polls were opened Patsy H. Haley was elected Deputy Inspector in his place.

At Ten O'Clock A.M. the polls were closed for a few moments with the register on Ballot Box standing at one hundred and twenty one (121) - The check lists and ballots were both counted and stood just the same as register.

The Ballot Box was closed again empty with register as when opened standing at one hundred and twenty one (121)

At one hour and forty three minutes past twelve O'clock P.M. the polls were closed a few moments with the register on Ballot Box standing at two hundred and thirty seven (237)

Upon motion of Martin Robins it was voted to keep the polls open one half hour longer than advertised.

At the closing of the polls as voted at three thirty O'clock the register stood at two hundred and ninety nine and the check lists showed the same for the total number of ballots cast.

A new tally board was used for the first time & while it was expected to assist in hastening the work it was not found satisfactory.

Meeting dissolved at Six Twenty Three O'Clock P.M.

I have served the foregoing warrant by posting up true and attested copies of the same at the places above mentioned, more than ten days before the day of holding said meeting.

Fred Chandler

Constable of Chelmsford

Chelmsford Oct 26, 1906

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

Pursuant to warrant a legal meeting of the inhabitants of Precinct One in the Town of Chelmsford, qualified to vote for Civil Officers was held Tuesday the Sixth day of November 1906, at Six O'clock (6 o'clock) A.M. in the Town Hall in said Precinct being the Polling Place designated by the Selectmen.

Warden, Deputy Warden, Clerks, Deputy Clerk and Two Tellers were sworn by Edward J. Robbins Town Clerk and after reading of warrant for meeting by Warden at six o'clock, the Ballot Box was opened and found to be empty with register standing at zero (0) it was then securely locked and voting commenced.

At nine forty three o'clock the polls were closed with register on Ballot Box standing at one hundred and fifty four and the check lists & ballots being counted which agreed and at nine fifty seven o'clock balloting was continued.

At twelve fifty six o'clock the polls were again closed with the register standing at two hundred and fifty one (251) showing ninety seven ballots

in all, making cast since last time of opening, ninety seven ballots cast.
 The check lists & ballots were counted which agreed with this and at three minutes past one the polls were again opened.

Would here state that before proceeding to count ballots the Tellers were sworn by the Warden & as the fourth one did not serve the Deputy Warden made the fourth man to assist in counting.

At eighteen minutes past two o'clock the polls were again closed and ballots taken out with registers standing at three hundred and seven (307) making fifty six ballots deposited since last time of opening and the check lists and ballots being counted agreed with this and in five minutes voting again proceeded.

The polls were closed at four o'clock with the register standing at three hundred and forty two as the total number of ballots cast showing thirty five ballots cast since the last time of opening & the counts of check lists & ballots cast agreed with this & proved it correct

At a quarter before five o'clock the total vote was declared for each candidate and the meeting dissolved
